

Cambria Historical Society Speaker Series Featuring Gary McMaster “The History of Camp Roberts”

Gary will do a presentation on the history of Camp Roberts, which from a historical perspective is one of the most important military installations in the world. Opened in 1941, the camp was the US Army's largest basic training camp during World War II. He will also cover the camp's role in our defense from its construction, through WWII and the Korean War, up to its role as the primary training camp for our state's National Guard.
